TSA Transportation Worker Identification Credential

Pre-enroll + Gather Documents + Enroll = Pick Up TWIC

Pre-enroll

Purpose:
TWIC Applicants who pre-enroll will provide their personal information ahead of time in a secure manner, receive an appointment time, and avoid lines at the Enrollment Center.

What is needed?
•Name, Date of Birth, Country of Birth, Citizenship

How much will a TWIC cost?

$	A TWIC costs $132.50.
MMD MML HME FAST	Card Holders pay $105.25.
VIA	• Visa/Mastercard • Money Order • Certified Check • Employer Corporate Check

Threat Assessment & Background Check

Gather Documents

Purpose:
TWIC Applicants need to provide necessary documents to verify their identity. These documents will be reviewed by TSA during the enrollment process.

What documentation is needed?
•Required Documentation may be reviewed at www.tsa.gov/twic.

What if disqualified?

Waiver	• Submit waiver if applicant believes that he/she does not pose a security threat despite having a disqualifying condition.
Appeal	• Submit appeal if applicant believes he/she is qualified to receive a TWIC but TSA has mistakenly identified the applicant as a threat.
Reapply	• Reapply if circumstances previously disqualifying an applicant change. Return to the enrollment center and repay the TWIC fee.

Threat Assessment & Background Check

Enroll

Purpose:
The enrollment process provides TSA with the appropriate information to run a security threat assessment and background check.

Where to enroll?
Applicants may enroll at any enrollment center. Locations for enrollment centers can be viewed at www.tsa.gov/twic.

Who does what?

Enrollee	• Review and sign TWIC disclosure agreement • Pay enrollment fee • Provide personal information • Provide necessary documentation • Provide fingerprints • Sit for digital photo
TSA	• Perform Security Threat Assessment: • Criminal History Check • Legal Status Check • Intelligence/Terrorism Check

Threat Assessment & Background Check

Pick Up TWIC

Return to SAME enrollment center.

Pick up and activate the TWIC.

Set and Remember PIN.